

CJGA US Golf Scholarship Seminars

The Canadian Junior Golf Association is proud to present a How to Obtain a US Golf Scholarship Seminar. The seminar is designed to assist young athletes and their parents in the process of making well-informed and sound decisions on their road to becoming a US Scholar/Athlete. The scholarship seminar will be lead by Ralph Bauer.

Program Overview – Is this Seminar for Me?

The US Scholarship Seminar is designed to answer these and other questions:

- Do you know exactly which tournaments to play in order to maximize your exposure and development?
- Is the process of examining over a thousand U.S. Colleges and Universities a daunting one?
- Do you know what U.S. College/University Coaches are looking for in a prospective student/athlete?
- Do you know what the academic requirements are to attend school in the United States?
- Do you know what your next step should be in your junior golf development?
- Do you know what is required of your son or daughter once they receive a golf scholarship?
- Are you sure that the school your son or daughter is going to is a good fit academically?
- Are the coach's goals congruent with my own?

In 2012 alone Ralph's students will enrol at: Harvard, Michigan, Houston, Lamar, and Eastern Michigan.

About Ralph Bauer

Ralph is a Class A Canadian PGA Professional who was named 2007 Ontario PGA Teacher of the Year. He is the Director of Player Development for the CJGA and his students have won many high profile events including an NCAA Division 1 Men's Individual Championship, 17 GAO Provincial Championships, 4 Golf Canada National Championships as well as many other AJGA events, etc.

As a world class golf coach and former NCAA player his professional experience qualifies him to help families navigate junior golf and manage college/university placement. A big part of the process is realizing what type of commitment is necessary for junior golfers to parlay their success at the junior ranks into the collegiate ranks. He has had many of his students receive College Golf Scholarships and Coaches the 2008/9 NCAA Individual Champion.

"It is the thrill of a lifetime to be able to share my extensive golf knowledge and expertise with aspiring young athletes as they strive to earn a college golf scholarship. Being a successful college player isn't easy, but with my assistance in identifying and targeting a college golf program that best fits each athlete, together we can make it happen" - Ralph Bauer.
